

CMP 2020 RESOURCE LIMITED PARTNERSHIP ANNOUNCES RECEIPT OF EXEMPTIVE RELIEF

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Toronto, April 3, 2020 - Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel Inc. (the “Manager”) announces today that on April 1, 2020, CMP 2020 Resource Limited Partnership (the “Partnership”) was granted exemptive relief by securities regulators in all provinces and territories from the restrictions concerning illiquid assets applicable to non-redeemable investment funds under National Instrument 81-102 Investment Funds (“NI 81-102”) to facilitate its investment in flow-through shares of resource companies that are reporting issuers and purchased by way of a private placement (“Restricted Period Flow-Through Shares”). Restricted Period Flow-Through Shares are “illiquid assets” for purposes of NI 81-102 because they are subject to a four-month resale restriction under National Instrument 45-102 Resale of Securities. The exemptive relief permits the Partnership to purchase and hold up to 100% of its net asset value in illiquid assets as a result of purchasing Restricted Period Flow-Through Shares. The Partnership expects that most of the flow-through shares it acquires will be acquired by way of private placements.

The exemptive relief enhances the Partnership’s ability to pursue and achieve its investment objective. There are no changes to the investment objective, restrictions or strategies of the Partnership as disclosed in the Partnership’s prospectus. The exemptive relief received is subject to certain conditions and applies to future CMP limited partnerships.
